

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER BOARD OF STANDARDS, INC.

Provided Tax Tables

The tax tables below are provided in the exam booklets for the March 2013 CFP® Certification Examination.

CFP Board's standard policy is that the CFP® Certification Examination tests current tax law, and the tax tables and other indexed numbers provided to examinees with the exam booklets will reflect current year tax law, with the exception of any recent tax law changes signed into law six months or less prior to the exam administration date. For example, a tax law signed into law in January would not be eligible for testing on the March exam but would be eligible for testing on the July exam and thereafter.

For the March 2013 CFP® Exam Only:

The cases and questions appearing in the March 2013 CFP® Certification Examination are based on 2012 federal tax regulations.
